

Oct 11, 2011

Meeting called to order by Eric Holsey at 0910

Members Present: Ron Youngberg, Lee Knowlton, John Shull, Erick Holsey. Guests: Kurt Donaldson, Ed Lindsey.

Previous Minutes- Read and approved

Treasurers Report- Chris reports bank balance of 1020.48 and has additional academy deposits to be put in and some bills to pay.

Old Business:

1. FF1 Academy- Presentations by Clatsop CC and Portland CC.

Clatsop- 80 – 100 hour course presented at Clatsop facility for $450 per student. Additional cost to bring class to LBTC. Minimum of 15 students and max of 20. No HazMat Ops or Wildland included in this course. Cost for books additional.

PCC- 160 hour course presented at LBTC for $10,235 contract price. This covers PCC instructors and tests. We provide 3 assistants for classes and a course coordinator., SCBAs, and Engines as needed. There is no minimum number of students and a maximum of 24. Adding Wildland 130, 190, 131, L-90 would add another 2 weekends. No HazMat, Driver, or OSHA training included in the 10 week course. Does include college credit.

DPSST academy is funded for next two years. It is an 8 week course.

Call for special meeting of training association to make decision on academy direction on Oct 18. Recommendation will be made to the Fire defense board at the Oct 19 meeting.

New Business: None

Good of the Order:

OSHA Confined Space Rule open for public comment.

Meeting Adjourned: 10:30